Visa Application for international students

An international citizens can enter Kazakhstan territory only with a study visa. The invitation is issued in advance by the Department of International Cooperation of KazNAU.

The deadline for submitting the necessary documents is no later than 20 days before the intended entry into the country. The invitation is issued at the Department of Internal Affairs in Almaty, the deadline for issuing the invitation is 5-15 days (contract, extract from the order and payment 0.5 MCI)

The classic version of training in preparatory courses is a ten-month educational program that includes an intensive course of Russian language and the study of several thematic disciplines.

The course of study is held for 10 months during the whole year. During the first semester students usually learn Russian language 4-5 hours daily. From the second semester profile subjects can be added.

After passing the exams graduates of preparatory courses receive a certificate confirming the level of proficiency in Russian. Further they can enter to the university where they studied or submit documents to any other Kazakhstan university.

In order to enter preparatory courses on a commercial basis, it is enough to send an application and copies of the necessary documents (signed agreement, advance payment)
